In other words, Let's Get to Work!	Katherine Christy Facilitator: Lora Warner	Sahara A	PSEC

Giddy for Google Sites: Career Portfolios/Learning Portfolios Competing for a job is no longer just against local competition. Technology has made applying for a job across the nation or even across the world extremely easy. For years, teachers, architects, writers, photographers and artists have used portfolios to showcase their skills and qualifications. Because of recent advances in technology and the increasingly competitive job market, professionals in all fields are creating career portfolios. Google sites can also be used as a learning portfolio. Teachers can have students create learning portfolios to keep track of their learning. Students don't just put papers into their portfolio, but students can put presentations, recordings and video into their online portfolios. Students are eager to share their work. It's time to use Google Sites in your classroom.	Jason Smith Facilitator: Anessa Brown	Mohave	SEC

Getting In Sync with Google Calendar In order to get the most out of your google calendar, you have to put in a little start up time, but once you get things started, you can sync all your schedules; no matter how many things you have to keep up with. I do, and I can show you how. Come with questions and your device with access to google calendar so we can be productive during this session. No matter what level you are on, we can take you to the next level. Maybe you have a personal calendar, but you want to create a classroom calendar, a school calendar, a district-wide calendar, or any event calendar, I can help; all you have to do is show up with your device.	Carla Chadd Facilitator:Michelle CD	Sahara A	SEC &amp; PSEC
