Breakout Session #1

(8:00 a.m. - 8:50 a.m.)

Student Selection Process

Sahara A

Presenter: Sheri Hager, Lex La-Ray

Facilitator: Frank North

Deciding on who will be chosen for programs is a difficult task. Do we choose the "best" students or accept students on an ability to benefit basis? In this session you will learn the process that Lex La-Ray Technical Center uses for student selection and entrance of programs. Lex La-Ray will share the process from pre-tours to student interviews and final selection. If you are having difficulty with the selection process of students, this session will help to give you information on what works for Lex La-Ray. Please be ready to share procedures that are in place for your district as well, as we are all learning and striving to improve.

Google Apps for Education

Kalahari Room

Presenter: Bob Martin

Facilitator: Kim Weber

Bring your own device.

Google Apps for Education (GAFE) is an incredibly powerful group of tools for schools. By creating a GAFE domain a school can save money, provide 21st century tools for learning, monitor and control student accounts and more. All for FREE! MOREnet has assisted dozens of schools with this migration and our Google Certified Trainers will be on hand for this session to describe the process, tools and steps necessary to be successful in GAFE. This session is a "30,000 foot view" of GAFE and what it can do for you, with lots of time for Q & A!

Breakout Session #2

Breakout Session #3

(9:45 a.m. - 10:40 a.m.)

Hospitality and Tourism for Students

Mojave Room

Presenter: Virginia Rehm

Facilitator: Connie Trower

At the Waynesville Career Center, we have piloted a new program through the Hospitality and Tourism class which involves ID/Autism students. The students go through a curriculum which prepares them to volunteer, as well as work in the community. Three of the students have already been placed in volunteer jobs during the school day. Our instructor will explain her program and tell how we were able to get it started in our district.

Being Involved in Your Professional Organization

Sahara A

Presenters: Shelly Stewart and Tawni Bowman

Facilitator: Lora Warner

What is the importance of becoming part of a professional organization? Join in the discussion as Shelly Stewart and Tawni Bowman share their experiences of 20+ years of education and involvement in organizations important to education. Learn how you too can be a decision maker for your organization.

Missouri Connections: A Sneak Preview of the New 2014 Career Preparation Planning Tools

Kalahari Room

Presenter: Jackie Coleman

Facilitator: Pat Twaddle

Bring your own device.

The session will focus on the new Default Checklists, designed for sites to customize checklist activities for students to complete, establish behavioral benchmarks for completion and sequence the activities by grade level or other configurations. Checklists are powerful tools to help counselors and teachers efficiently communicate career preparation expectations and maintain quality standards. Attendees will also get a "sneak preview" of the new Combined Report of Assessments, Personal Education Learning Plan Report and Site Administration Tools.

Breakout Session #6 (2:30 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.)

Student Etiquette Dinners - More than Manners

Sahara A

Presenter: Mindy Cloninger, Pitt State University

Facilitator: Lori Hicks

When hearing the word "etiquette" most people think about which fork to use, but Pittsburg State's Etiquette Dinner encompasses far more than manners. In today's culture, many business meetings and job interview situations include food. Let's face it, we love to eat! Etiquette dinners provide a hands-on opportunity for students to practice professional table manners in a comfortable setting. Information expands from dining to handshakes, cell phone etiquette and "what do I do if..." scenarios.
