Title of Presentation:

"Balancing Your Work and Your Life" (PD 1 & 4)

Presenter:

John Irvin, Lifestyle Enhancement Services, Tulsa, Oklahoma

Target Audience:

Family and consumer sciences instructors-all levels

Brief Summary of Session:

Life is change. The rate of change is faster than ever. There is hardly a time to catch one's breath before the next change comes along. Since we can't slip back to a slower, simpler time, the only alternative is to face what comes our way, focusing our available energy on the things that are important and the places where we can make a difference. We call it balancing. What we are doing is using the energy we have available on any given day to do the many things we want, need and have to do.

This interactive presentation will give you tips and techniques so that you can make the most of your time and your energy.

Date and Time:

Monday, July 25, 2005; 8:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

Location:

Clarion Hotel, Springfield

Presentation 1: Whale Done! (PD 2 & 4)

What does training killer whales have to do with training humans, or students? More than you may think! Whale Done! is based on the book written by Ken Blanchard that applies a proven approach used by the whale trainers of SeaWorld to teach managers and employees, alike; a technique that increases employee effectiveness at work. If Whale Done! is successful in the work world, imagine what the practice of Whale Done! can do for our students!

Presentation 3: Understanding the New Food Pyramid (PD 1 & 2)

Finally, it's here! The USDA has released the MyPyramid food guidance system, along with the new MyPyramid symbol. The system provides many options to help Americans make healthy food choices and to be active every day. In this session, you will learn how to personalize your own diet, make gradual improvements, understand the importance of physical activity, realize the importance of variety and moderation of all foods and, most importantly, re-learn proportionality. Eating healthy can be easier than one may think!
