Take Charge of Your Finances: Family Economics and Financial Education (FEFE) Training

Sunday, July 20, 2008; 1:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

Clarion Hotel Springfield

Monday, July 21, 2008; 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Clarion Hotel Springfield

Instructors: Family Economics and Financial Education Trainers, Joanna Krogstad, Montana and Brenda Dumler, Missouri

Target Audience: High school family and consumer sciences instructors

Brief Summary of Session: Struggling to Teach Financial Education? The University of Arizona's Family Economics and Financial Education Project, in conjunction with the Missouri Educators of Family and Consumer Sciences (MoEFACS), invite you to attend this "Take Charge of Your Finances" training. The training will provide attendees the opportunity to experience the "Life in...United States" spending plan simulation, receive up-to-date content information, and receive ten ready-to-teach, activity based financial education lesson plans. Participants will be rejuvenated with a plethora of ideas guaranteed to make them want to begin teaching financial education immediately.

One (1) hour of graduate or undergraduate credit may be earned for the 2008 summer semester from Missouri State University at Springfield (MSU). Enrollment for obtaining credit will take place during registration on the first day of the session.

Those taking the workshop for credit must attend both days of the session and a class follow-up session from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Thursday, July 24, immediately following the MoEFACS conference.

Attendance Restricted to MoEFACS Division

Pre-Registration Required by Tuesday, July 1, 2008: No registrations will be accepted after this date. More details and registration information/forms are included on the DESE Family and Consumer Sciences Website at:

Missouri Family and Consumer Sciences Student Teaching/Cooperating Teacher Inservice

Monday, July 21, 2008; 9:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Clarion Hotel, Springfield

Presenters: Missouri Family and Consumer Sciences Teacher Education Council Members

Target Audience: Family and consumer sciences instructors who have an interest in serving as a cooperating teacher to a family and consumer sciences student teacher. Those who have supervised student teachers in the past and would like to continue doing so will find this session helpful.

Brief Summary of Session: This one-day inservice is designed for Missouri family and consumer sciences instructors interested in participating as a cooperating teacher in the student teaching process, whether you have supervised student teachers in the past or are interested in doing so in the future.

This session will be a collaborative effort of the family and consumer sciences teacher education programs and family and consumer sciences teacher educators in Missouri. The session content will be geared toward the needs of student teacher cooperating teachers across the state. Topics will include: Observation, conferencing and evaluation skills for the cooperating teacher; creating a learning environment for the student teacher; socialization, professional image and marketing of the family and consumer sciences program.

Attendance Restricted to MoEFACS Division

Pre-Registration Required by Friday, June 13, 2008. More details and registration information/forms will be included on the DESE Family and Consumer Sciences Website at:

Session I - 2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. (Cont.)

Session II - 3:15 p.m. - 4:15 p.m. (Cont.)

Let's Talk About Foster Care!

Clarion Hotel - Atrium

Presenter: Rene Howitt, Author, St. Louis

Facilitators: Session I: Amy Johnson
Session II: Irene Kalmer

Privacy issues ... foster parents are told "reveal information to teachers that is only pertinent for them to know." Making that determination can be very confusing and bring up legitimate issues on both sides. Helping educators understand the issues surrounding foster care and the responsibilities of all parties will be the focus of this session.

(PD 1, 4)

Learning About and Across the Lifespan

Clarion Hotel - Conference Room A/B

Presenter: Dr. Share DeCroix Bane, Assistant Professor and State Gerontology Specialist, University of Missouri Extension, Kansas City

Facilitators: Session I: Jeanette Brown
Session II: Ardith Waggoner

This workshop will identify major ideas and trends in adult development. These will include strategies for successful aging physically and mentally. Current increases in longevity and healthy aging are increasing opportunities within families for intergenerational experiences and learning. It is also opening new career opportunities beyond the traditional occupations as caregivers to consultants collaborating with elders as they pursue new opportunities to learn, travel, volunteer and much more. Resources and models in the areas of adult development and intergenerational learning will be shared. (PD1, 2, 3, 4)

DESE/CTE Mentor Training

Clarion Hotel - Conference Room C

This session will be presented during Session II time only, 3:15 p.m. to 4:15 p.m.

Presenter: Dr. Nancy Fedorchak, Missouri Center for Career Education, Warrensburg

Have you been teaching at least 3-5 years? Are you excited about your profession and desire to share your enthusiasm with new teachers? Are you willing to commit to helping someone new to your profession? You might be a candidate for the DESE/CTE Mentoring Program. Attend this session and learn about the qualifications, the rewards and the training available to become a mentor in this state program. This program will also brush up your mentor skills if you are a mentor in your home district. (PD 4)
