Aligning your Curriculum and Classroom with Best Practices

Clarion Hotel Springfield

Sponsoring Division: MoEFACS

Presenter: Missouri Teacher Education Council

Target Audience: Family Consumer Science & Human Services Teachers

Brief Summary of Session: This one-day in-service is designed for Missouri family consumer sciences instructors interested in aligning their curriculum and classroom with best practices. This session will be a collaborative effort of teacher educators and family and consumer sciences teachers in Missouri. A three pronged rotating presentation format will be utilized to best serve teachers, allowing for topic specific depth and participant collaboration.

Rigor, Relevance, Social-Justice and Career Readiness: In this session, FCS teachers will explore issues pertaining to the notions of rigor and relevance as they relate to the FCS curriculum and student preparation for post-secondary experiences. Teachers will identify curricular spaces for integrating core content (reading, mathematics, global issues) with experiences that enhance critical thinking and promote socially just practices central to FCS.

Process Skills/Questions & Reasoning for Action: What do we do about teaching reasoning for action and process skills that will empower students to use FCS content in an ever changing and challenging world? How do we motivate and teach students to think? Are we preparing our students for the future? This subgroup will explore combining process skills, questioning, and reasoning for action into existing content.

Classroom Management & Differentiated Instruction: In this session, Family and Consumer Sciences teachers will be exposed to concepts regarding classroom management and differentiated instruction. Teachers will be provided resources and instructional strategies for working with students, including those with diversity, disabilities and at-risk behaviors.

Attendance Restricted to MoEFACS Division.

Pre-Registration Required: By June 11, 2010 (More details and registration information/forms will be included on the DESE Family and Consumer Sciences Website at:

The Sound of Children – Industry & More

Clarion Hotel Springfield

Sponsoring Division: MoEFACS

Presenter: Industry Tour – Morning

Tiara Dixon, Author - Afternoon

Target Audience: Early Childhood Instructors, Family Consumer Sciences and Human Service Teachers

This workshop will bring to life the “industry” of Early Childhood and how one corporation utilizes this industry to help its employees. Being in the childcare industry poses a lot of responsibility to the employees and to the children it serves. Join in for a morning of visualizing the industry in full force and the demands of the corporate world in providing a service to their employees.

The afternoon will be filled with the power of music in early education with a presentation and teaching techniques from author Tiara Dixon. Tiara is the co-author of the book; The Sound of Storytime. Her book takes the traditional storytime for early childhood and adds singing and simple instruments such as bells and rhythm sticks. Forty-two lesson plans centered around specific books are given in detail, with song suggestions and lists of additional appropriate books. Tiara will also incorporate materials and information pertaining to the “Every Child Ready to Read” initiative. If you teach Child Development or Early Childhood Careers, you won’t want to miss this.

Open to Missouri ACTE Members.

Pre-Registration Required: By Friday, June 11, 2010 (More details and registration information/forms will be included on the DESE Family and Consumer Sciences Website at: http://dese.mo.gov/divcareered/facs_professional_development.htm#MoACTE)

Digital Storytelling – Bringing it to Life

Clarion Hotel Springfield

Sponsoring Division: MoEFACS

Presenter: Teachers from Digital Media Camp 09

Target Audience: Teachers interested in Digital Media for the Classroom

Brief Summary of Session: Storytelling is an age old educational tool that is utilized in classrooms across the world. Digital Storytelling is telling stories with computer based tools. In the summer of 2009 a group of teachers gathered in Columbia for a Digital Media Camp. This group of teachers was able to come away from this experience with valuable information on the integration of Digital Media in their classrooms. The morning session will have some of these teachers presenting information and experiences using this type of media with students. The good, bad and ugly will be discussed and how they overcame the roughest situations as well as relished in the greatest accomplishments.

The afternoon session will have those teachers who have attended the Digital Media Camp 09 work hand in hand with those teachers who want to enhance their own classroom using digital media. This should be an outstanding workshop with lots of information to take back to your classroom and students.

Come prepared with your own Laptop, as the hotel has Wireless Internet available. Bring a Jump Drive to save your work.

Open to Missouri ACTE Members.

Transitioning into the 2010-2011 Family and Consumer Sciences Classroom: New Teachers and Teachers Returning to Family and Consumer Sciences – In-Service

Clarion Hotel Springfield

Sponsoring Division: MoEFACS

Presenter: Louise Lunkenheimer, Nevada Regional Technical Center, 2009 MoEFACS President

Target Audience: New and Returning to the Classroom FCS & HS Instructors

Brief Summary of Session: This in-service is designed specifically for those family and consumer sciences teachers who are new to teaching family and consumer sciences and/or those returning to the field of teaching family and consumer sciences this year. Those who attended last year's session will also find this workshop helpful.

Veteran Missouri family and consumer sciences teachers representing the middle school, junior high and high school levels will provide information and handouts on a variety of topics to include: implementing FCCLA as an integral part of the instructional program; department management and team work; classroom and lab management; and professional development. Updates on resources, curriculum and technology also will be provided.

This year's session will also feature a wrap-up session and luncheon on the last day of the conference. New and returning teachers will not want to miss it!

Speakers: Danica Pape, Coordinator & Kim Scates, Co-Coordinator, Relationship and Sexual Violence Prevention (RSVP) Center, MU Columbia

Topic: The Green Dot Strategy at MU - A Comprehensive Approach to Violence Prevention. This model of violence prevention emphasizes the role of bystanders in addressing power-based personal violence, specifically, sexual violence. The model targets all community members as potential bystanders, and seeks to engage them, through awareness, education and skills-practice, in proactive behaviors that establish intolerance of violence as the norm, as well as reactive interventions in high-risk situations – resulting in the ultimate reduction of violence. Come and hear what MU Columbia has accomplished and how this could be integrated into the FCCLA program of "STOP THE VIOLENCE."

 Session IV: Kim Shultz

Research has connected healthy relationships to the overall health of individuals. Char Kamper, author of Healthy Choices, Healthy Relationships, will guide participants through the development of the teen brain – the foundation for understanding adolescent emotional responses, decision making and self-regulation. Participants will engage in "Mapping the Brain", one of the many activities leading teens to develop knowledge and skills that promote optimum health in relationships central to life. This curriculum is designed for teens in grades 8-12. (PD 1, 2, 4)

Ballroom IV

Trail Mix: Lessons on Diversity

Presenter: Kim DeLapp & Heather Bratcher,
 Belton School District
 Facilitator: Session I: Allison Kreifels
 Session IV: Judy Robinett

Trail Mix is all about the wonderful combinations that you can make. Think about it! How many pieces of the mix can you put together and make a new flavor? How many times do you choose to only eat the cashews or just the M&M's? This workshop is all about Diversity. The many ways that we can see the world sometimes divides us. This workshop is meant to be hands-on and thought provoking. (PD 1, 2, 3)

Reaching and Teaching Unmotivated Students

Presenter: Daniel Santiago

Facilitator: Session IV: Janet Sullivan

The youth of this generation are severely at-risk, mostly because they don't value their education because they recognize that the antiquated method of traditional education is not preparing them for the world in which we live in. A Digital Generation living in the Information Age, is desperately craving a change in how and why they are learning. Students are dropping out of school at an epidemic rate. Motivating Unmotivated Students is a skill that must be learned if you ever want to impact youth that are disconnected, discontent, and defeated because of their domestic circumstances or socio-economic level. (PD 2, 4)
