Science and Our Food Supply Projects in the Classroom

University Plaza Hotel - Kansas A Room

Presenter: Lindsey Rothrock, Logan-Rogersville Middle School
Session Description: Through a dynamic curriculum developed by the FDA/NSTA, come and learn how to implement science practices into the study of food safety in the 7-12 FCS classroom. Participants will receive free curriculum and resources and participate in a variety of lab-oriented experiences. By the end of the workshop, participants will be able to prepare and properly dispose of agar plates used in conducting food science experiments; set up, perform and differentiate a variety of food science experiments that relate to food safety; explore how food safety topics can encourage student inquiry and use higher-level Bloom's taxonomy; and become equipped to use cross-curricular activities to support FCS standards.

Bring your own fully charged device and extension cord.

Minimum of 10 participants.

CONCURRENT SESSION III

2:15 p.m. - 3:15 p.m.

Interior Design Strategies for Teachers

University Plaza Convention Center - Arizona Room

Presenter: Lexy McNew, Ozark High School

Session Description: This workshop is designed for any teacher who teaches Housing and/or Interior Design or someone who wants to learn more about how to teach those courses. If your school is 1:1, the presenter has ideas for you. If your school has limited computer use, the presenter has ideas for you. Topics covered will be: Scope and Sequence for a one- or two-semester course; using Kahoot and other Web 2.0 Tools for Interior Design Formative Assessments; Color Unit, from start to finish, including a great Color Formative Assessment that gets students up and moving around the room; and project ideas and suggestions on how to make projects run smoothly. Come to this session, and you will leave excited about teaching Housing and Interior Design in your school!

Facilitator: Ann Ellis

2:15 p.m. - 3:15 p.m.

FCS Program News

University Plaza Convention Center - Georgia Room

Presenters: Leone Herring, Director of Family Consumer Sciences and Human Services, DESE; Debra Price, Teacher Educator, Missouri State University

Meeting the Challenge: Reaching All Students

University Plaza Convention Center - Iowa Room

Presenter: David Shepard, Middle Matters

Session Description: With IDEA legislation of the 70s, high-stakes testing, and pressure to close the achievement gap, more and more students with distinct needs are scheduled into "regular" classes. At times teachers are faced with very diverse students, lack the experience or the training to meet all the multiple needs of these students. This session is designed to share simple ideas and strategies that will help all teachers reach more children. Attendees will leave with many, "I can use this on Monday" activities.

Facilitator: Ashley DeVore

CONCURRENT SESSION III (CONT.)

2:15 p.m. - 3:15 p.m.

Are My Activities Beneficial in Helping Students Prepare for Child-Related Careers?

University Plaza Hotel - Arkansas Room

Presenter: Rachelle Banhart, Lex La-Ray Technical Center, and 2014-15 MoEFACS Membership Committee, Child Care Chairman

Session Description: Sometimes it's the little things we do that inspire students to pursue careers with children, such as a word of encouragement, participation at a parent night, or touring a pre-school program. If you were to plan a unit or semester for your Child Development, Early Childhood, or Family Living class, what activities are really going to help? This session will have you brainstorming with other teachers and walking away with activities and current research you can use.

Facilitator: Rochelle Kanoy

CONCURRENT SESSION IV

3:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.

One-to-One Resources for Family Consumer Sciences Educators

University Plaza Convention Center - Arizona Room

Presenter: Angela Stewart, Ozark School District and RCET Southwest

Session Description: With more technology available now than ever before, you may find yourself wishing you knew the best way to implement technology into your classroom. If so, then you will find yourself right at home in this session, where we will learn about implementing resources and learning strategies into your classroom.

Facilitator: Regina Rainey

Assessments and Student Learning Objectives

University Plaza Convention Center - Georgia Room

Presenter: Vicki Schmitt, Department of Reading, Foundations and Technology, Missouri State University

Session Description: With all of the changes in teacher evaluation, sometimes we need to step back and take a look at what we are already doing and how to take it to the next level. This session will provide basic information about SLOs and assessments for the FCS classroom.

Facilitator: Debbie Snyder

3:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Don't Blame Me - The Teacher Started It.

University Plaza Convention Center - Iowa Room

Presenter: David Shepard, Middle Matters

Session Description: For years we educators have sought to "control" our students. The focus of this session, however, will not be on them, but will be on "us". We will examine 35 teacher behaviors that make a difference in classroom management. By looking at ourselves through the use of a self-perception survey, all participants will review their own strategies in a humorous non-threatening manner to determine their effectiveness. Please come and take a look at yourself and smile.

Facilitator: Lori Krug

3:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.

LifeSmarts

University Plaza Hotel - Arkansas Room

Presenter: Linda Cumpston, Blair Oaks R-II High School

Session Description: What is LifeSmarts? Only the experience of a lifetime! Learn how to teach students life-smart skills without them realizing they are learning knowledge beyond a textbook that they can and will apply to their own lives as young adults. A complete program with on-line access, endless opportunities, and it's free!

"What Do 'World Class' Teachers Do?"

Speaker: David Shepard, Middle Matters, Lexington, Ky.

Description: Are some teachers just "better" than others, or do they just have a different set of skills? Are there things "world class" teachers do repeatedly that make them more effective and efficient? This session will look at a descriptive list of "best practices" that seem to present in all the classrooms of the most productive teaching professionals. Many simple yet powerful descriptors of teaching behaviors will be discussed. Come and see how many practices you use and have mastered. You might be pleased to know how good you are.
