Topic 3: Reflective Critical Thinking

Holiday Inn North - Granada

Presenter: Carla Allen, RT(R)

Facilitator: Dr. Ann Rutz

Summary: This presentation will examine the necessity of Critical Thinking education in the allied health programs. I will also share some methods of introducing students to the concepts of Critical Thinking, encouraging reflective critical thinking as a component of the Clinical Education process, and scaffolding the Critical Thinking process. There has been significant research that shows Critical Thinking cannot be developed in a general way. It is inherently linked to the situations in which the thought processes must be applied. We will practice using a critical thinking model and discuss methods of implementing critical thinking into our programs.
