Keynote Speakers

Sergeant Major (Ret.)
Lawrence Herring

A thirty-year retiree from the United States Army that participated in both the Vietnam and Desert Storm Campaigns. Sergeant Major Herring was employed in the Mobile County School System (Alabama) for sixteen years. The thesis of his presentation will be “Making the Dream Come True for Educators and Students. Career Tech Adds Common Sense to the Common Core.”

Crystal Russell

A certified public accountant and partner in the firm, Hull & Russell, P.C. She is a motivational speaker and comedic story-teller at churches, conferences, and various other events. Out of her desire to encourage laughter, she created the character, Claudean Louise, who often travels with Mrs. Russell, telling tall tales.

Elizabeth (Liz) Huntley

A committed child advocate and a passionate litigation attorney. Mrs. Huntley is a leader in both professional and community organizations, and is a member of the Auburn University Board of Trustees. She travels throughout the country as a motivational speaker, and has recently published a book about her personal story titled More Than A Bird.
