The 2020 ACTE Agricultural Education Division Business meeting was called to order by the Agricultural Education Division Vice President – Scott Stone at 6:10 p.m. virtually.

The Agenda for the 2020 Agricultural Education Division Business meeting was emailed to all registered participants with no proposed amendments or corrections. The agenda will stand approved as posted.

The minutes from the December 2019 Agricultural Education Division Business meeting were posted on the ACTE Agricultural Education Division webpage and emailed to all registered participants with no proposed amendments or corrections. The minutes will stand approved as posted.

The current ACTE Agricultural Education Division membership is 3,843. Stone addressed the concern about the number of NAAE members who do not choose to join ACTE. He asked members to reach out to him and state their challenges that hinder them from joining ACTE.

Stone recognized the ACTE Ag Regional Award Winners. The winners included:

ACTE Teacher of the Year Finalist
Kristina Guttadora, NJ

ACTE New Teacher of the Year Finalist
Kaitlin VanHeusen, FL
Lisa Orren, MN

ACTE Teacher Educator of the Year Finalist
Dr. Dale Layfield, SC

The Current ACTE Agriculture Education Division committee representatives are:

Bylaws Committee: Annette Weeks for 7/1/19-6/30/21 (1st term) and Nomination Committee: Sherisa Nailor 7/1/19-6/30/21 (1st term).

Stone recognized the 2020-2021 ACTE Ag Education Fellow Miss. Ashley Thompson.

Stone outlined the Agricultural Education Division Vice President election cycle. The two candidates are Dr. Kristopher Elliot and Dr. Robert Torres. Voting will open December 4, 2020 and end January 4, 2021. Candidate's videos were shown at the conclusion of the meeting.

Stone outlined the ACTE Election process and dates. Voting will begin on December 4 and close on January 4. The two candidates are Jon Quatman and Scott Stone. The candidate videos can be found at https://www.acteonline.org/about/get-involved/board-election/board_election_candidates/

Stone recognized Dr. Nancy Trivette for her outstanding service to the ACTE organization as past president.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:25 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Scott Stone
ACTE Ag Ed Division Vice President
