

Virtual Only Sessions

These sessions will be available in the Virtual Program Library beginning Thursday, July 22.

Administration/Guidance

KTS Data Exchange: Grade Sync

Troubleshooting

Presenter(s): Tanya Fluke

This session will cover the best ways to analyze and resolve grade syncing issues associated with the KTS Data Exchange.

KTS Data Exchange: Attendance Processing for Technical Schools

Presenter(s): Tanya Fluke

This session is specific for technical school administrative specialists, and will cover best practices for processing student attendance in the technical school database.

Computer Science

Implementing a K-12 Computer Science Student Experience

Presenter(s): Dr. Amy Rauch, Jordan Gerstenberger

Learn how to provide a consistent K-12 computer science experience using Codelicious curriculum.

CIW Technology Courses and Industry Certifications

Presenter(s): Gary Priddy

Introduction to technology from middle school to industry skill-based training/certifications with CIW.

How to Keep Kids Coding: Make Games with Construct 3

Presenter(s): Stuart Drexler, Laura Donaghy

This web-based game development platform scaffolds students from Block coding through to JavaScript, preparing them for careers in coding, design user testing, and production management.

Family & Consumer Sciences

Creating Innovative Interactive Digital Notebooks

Presenter(s): Chrissy Daigle

Join this session to learn tips and tricks for creating engaging and interactive digital notebooks.

The Art of Pasta Making

Presenter(s): Camorrow Jones-Drake

A step-by-step demonstration of pasta making.

Manufacturing

All About Tooling U

Presenter(s): Krista Maurer, Chrissy Williams

The benefits of using and incorporating Tooling U in today's educational platform.

Media Arts

Physical Meets Digital: Creating Illustrator Patterns from the Subtle Beauties of Architecture

Presenter(s): Shannon McCarthy

Case study examples on how to find inspiration from the hidden beauties of architecture and transform them into unique patterns created in Adobe Illustrator.

Cell Phone-Based Video Production

Presenter(s): Andrew Reed

This presentation will teach you how to shoot and edit high-quality videos using your cell phone and free software.