An Invitation to Participate as an Exhibitor or Sponsor at the 2022 Kentucky CTE Summer Program

In 2022, The CTE Meeting Place will provide the largest and most comprehensive professional development opportunity in the state for Career and Technical Education (CTE) professionals at all levels of instruction -- middle school to postsecondary -- and in all program disciplines -- agriculture to transportation.

The CTE Meeting Place needs you!

Responding to both attendee and exhibitor suggestions, in 2022 The CTE Meeting Place will be a hub of interaction among teachers, exhibitors, administrators, sponsors, partner organizations, educational institutions, business and industry, economic developers, and government officials. There were more than 1,500 attendees in 2021. CTE Meeting Place participants also will be displayed in the hybrid conference pages. About 250 participated virtually in 2021.

The CTE Meeting Place is for you!

The CTE Meeting Place will provide a networking forum where teachers and administrators can review products and services to improve CTE instruction, and institutions and businesses can interact with teachers and administrators to build understanding to improve mutual success. CTE is an essential part of educational opportunity and economic development. Please share your ideas, programs, products, services, processes, and recommendations to enhance student achievement and teacher effectiveness.
