COVID-19 Protocols in New Orleans

ACTE has been working very closely with our partners in New Orleans as we monitor the COVID-19 pandemic and the resulting safety protocols and want to share an update. Please note, these protocols are not ACTE's but are the requirements of the city of New Orleans.

INDOOR MASK MANDATE IN EFFECT IN NEW ORLEANS

Everyone, regardless of vaccination status, must wear a mask indoors when with people who are not in their immediate household. This means, all attendees must wear a mask while indoors at all venues, restaurants, etc. at all times. While eating, your mask can be off but must be put back on immediately after eating.

VACCINATION OR NEGATIVE COVID TEST REQUIRED in order to gain access to the following areas in New Orleans:

- Restaurants
- Bars
- Breweries, microbreweries, distilleries and micro-distilleries
- Event spaces such as hotel ballrooms, event venues and reception halls
- Casinos, racetracks and video poker establishments

Anyone 12 years of age and older must provide the following, if attending any of the above listed events in New Orleans:

Proof of at least one dose of an approved COVID vaccine -- original, digital photograph, or photocopy of CDC Vaccination Card (both sides) or;

Negative PCR test within 72 hours -- physical or electronic test results from a PCR COVID-19 test indicating negative results within the past 72 hours. Antigen tests will not be accepted. For more information on testing sites, please click the New Orleans Testing Sites.

For the latest and addition COVID-19 information and guidelines in New Orleans to ensure your safety as a VISION attendee, please visit the New Orleans Ready site.

- Offers an employee with technical and interpersonal skills
- Is an established and growing industry across the nation

What jobs are available in hospitality and tourism?

Salaries and benefits are projected to fall between a median and a higher pay by jobs in the economy requires. Jobs for caregivers and lodging and information standards are expected to increase by up to 15 percent through 2018, while occupations that support sporting events are also projected to grow. Jobs in recreation and gaming as well as in fast food will experience slower average growth, and meeting and convention planning jobs are in a separate, a general tourism through sites. In addition, opportunities are expanding rapidly for caregivers, who work in this sector organizing and guiding travel, tours and events.

Many employees in the field work part-time and earn less than the national median wage of $14.20. However, there are occupations that earn more than $14.20 per hour such as chefs and food service managers. In this rapidly growing sector, a number of careers can earn $14.20+ in hospitality and tourism also offer an important entry into the world of work for persons of various career requirements than their job in the industry was an entry-level position.

By 2018, 40 percent of jobs in this sector will go to workers with at least some postsecondary education, particularly in the food and lodging occupations requiring postsecondary education. The industry also offers a number of industry-recognized certifications are encouraged and may be required, such as National Restaurant Association's ServSafe certification for food safety and handling. Occupations in this sector call for technical, academic and employability skills to operate business establishments, manage staff, serve customers, prepare food, plan events and more. Jobs in this sector include:

- bartenders
- chefs
- gaming supervisors
- caterers
- waiters
- event planners
