

Greetings PACE members:

I hope this newsletter finds you and your family safe and healthy. Without a doubt, we are living through the most challenging times of our lives. Yet within those challenges, lies the most opportunistic time of our lives. As we move through this period, each of us will gain skills that we may have not attained otherwise. Whether it is online instruction, communication or merely human relationship building, we will be better as we move forward.

Please continue to check the ACTE website for ideas, opportunities and solutions for issues you encounter. The website has new content added almost daily to assist our members. I would like to congratulate Kristina Ropos on winning the election for ACTE PACE VP-Elect. She and I have been in communication, and I am so excited for PACE's future. She has some great ideas and plans to continue the movement forward for our division.

Please stay safe during this trying time and know that you are making a difference in lives each day.
