

Trade and Industrial Education

Includes educators preparing students for careers in a variety of trades, such as carpentry, masonry, electrical and construction management, automotive technology, heating, ventilation and air conditioning systems, computer-aided drafting and manufacturing, and cosmetology.

Administration

Creates, promotes and implements high-quality professional standards across the full spectrum of CTE, and provides professional development and networking opportunities for our members.

Agricultural Education

Includes agricultural sciences teachers (K-16), state agricultural education leaders and university agricultural educators and their mission is to prepare students for successful careers in the global agriculture and natural resources systems.

Work-Based Learning

Includes a diverse group of professionals including work-based learning coordinators, apprenticeship coordinators, K-12 and postsecondary educators, business and community partners, program administrators, and state workforce representatives.

DIVISIONS

Program Areas of Interest for ACTE's Members

acteonline.org/divisions

Business Education

Educates today's students for tomorrow's business community. Our members include business education teachers, applied academic teachers, business leaders, marketing professionals and teacher educators.

Postsecondary, Adult and Career Education

Provides high-quality training and professional development to the diverse mix of postsecondary educators serving in CTE fields.

Engineering and Technology Education

Includes educators preparing individuals for careers in engineering, technology, and design and covers applied aspects of science and mathematics. Includes four areas of interests: STEM; Arts, Media and Entertainment; Esports; Information Technology.

New and Related Services

Includes 10 special interest sections, such as Career Academies, JROTC Leadership Pathways, Special Populations, and more.

Family and Consumer Sciences Education

Empowers individuals and families across their life span to manage the challenges of living and working in a diverse global society.

Health Science Education

Educates today's students for tomorrow's health care community. Includes members preparing youth and adults for such careers as nursing, dental hygiene and dental assisting, home health aide and medical technician professions.

Counseling and Career Development

Designs, implements and evaluates career development programming to support CTE, career decision making and career pathways in a variety of K-16 settings. Includes School-to-Work/Careers section.