1. Introductions – what’s going on in your area/state with CTE?
Lisa Stange welcomed new member to the group Jay Davis.
2. VISION ideas -
 - a. How we can help

The following list was shared with the group.

- Needing help with the Awards Gala
- Wayfinding for General Sessions/Registration (stand in key areas in the center to assist with directions)
- Ribbon Wall Restocking
- Tote Bag Restocking
- Bark Park Waiver Distribution / Collection
- Assembly of Delegates Check-in
- First-time Attendee breakfast check-in
- Greeters at the Convention Center
- Bookstore help
- Hospitality Room Hosts

- 1) Lisa will create a form with the options and times for the advisory group to sign up to help. Reduce rates and possible comp for VISION.
- 2) Lisa will update the website with the information and send a letter to all retirees communicating with them to join the advisory group.
- 3) Once the advisory group members complete the form and schedules have been created, communication will be sent to those who volunteered and ACTE will provide a discount code.

- b. Reception for Retirees – when is best and who can help get food and drink?

Greg volunteered to help with food and drink. Lisa indicated the group spent less than $100 last year. Nancy asked if there might be a potential sponsor who might be available to donate approximately $250. Greg volunteered to talk with ACTE staff about potential sponsors.

Lisa will create a sign-up form for the Retiree Advisory Group Reception to be held on Thursday, December 5 at 4:00 pm in Steve DeWitt's suite.

It was confirmed to order Retiree ribbons.

3. ACTE Updates

Dana shared information on the election and candidates. Slates are due to the Leadership and Awards Manager on Aug. 15; President-Elect, Business Education Vice President, ETED VP-Elect, Region I VP-Elect, Region IV VP-Elect. There are two positions that were appointed during the July board meeting, Robert Torres – President/Past President and Lavyne Rada – Agricultural Education Division due to only one applicant for the positions.

Kelli requested the group to promote the leadership programs. IAED Mentorship program, Experienced and New Professional Fellows and is open until September 30.

She shared the new partnership with Catapult and requested to log in and read more about it. Also a reminder about the following conferences: Postsecondary Convening is held in Denver September 20-22 and Best Practices Conference is held in Portland Oregon on October 9-11.

4. Other Business?

Next meeting will be in October.
