ACTE's School Study Visit of schools within the Northern Kane County Region 110 showcases a regional approach to CTE in the greater Chicago area, where multiple districts pool resources to offer advanced programs and facilities they couldn't sustain alone—while partnering with a community college to help students earn credentials and college credit in high school. Ideal for CTE leaders seeking scalable, cost-effective solutions for comprehensive high school CTE models, this tour delivers real-world strategies for doing more with less.
