

CTE in Michigan

Career and technical education (CTE) programs equip students with the skills and experience necessary to pursue careers in key Michigan industries such as:

arts and culture

life sciences and medical devices

outdoor recreation

mobility and automotive manufacturing

In Michigan, CTE concentrators and completers achieve a higher median annual income compared to non-CTE students and earn more postsecondary awards.

Many students are already enrolled in CTE in Michigan, developing technical, academic and employability skills and engaging in work-based learning experiences with industry partners.

During the 2023-24 school year, Michigan had:

92,361

secondary CTE participants

122,062

postsecondary CTE participants

These youth and adult learners in CTE programs are more engaged, graduate high school at higher rates, earn industry-recognized credentials and have rewarding and family-sustaining careers.
