LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT

Purpose
This award honors CTE professionals who have demonstrated long-term leadership in support of ACTE, introduced innovative career and technical education practices, and made significant, lasting contributions to the field throughout their careers.

Eligibility
Candidates must be members of their state ACTE to be considered at the state level. State winners must be national ACTE members by March 1 to be considered at the regional level. Since this award encompasses their entire career, the candidate must have been a member of the ACTE organization for a minimum of 10 years.

Criteria
Candidates will be evaluated on the following criteria:
1) Contributions to student success
2) Innovations in CTE
3) Leadership in the local or greater CTE community

All candidates must demonstrate at least one best practice in CTE as outlined in the High-Quality CTE Framework to be eligible for the award.
For more information on how nominations will be scored, please see the ACTE Member Awards Scoring Rubric.
